

PEOPLE WATCHING BINGO

When you think bingo, you probably envision an old folks home or community function. But bingo doesn't have to suck. In fact, it can be a fun date night activity if done correctly. This version is People Watching Bingo. One of the things me and my wife used to do when we first got married is go to the gas station down the road to get drinks. While we were there, we would spend time watching people and all the crazy things they do. People Watching Bingo is a play on that. Simply print out a couple bingo cards, and go to a public place. Alternately, you could just screen shot the cards and use the picture editor on your phone to mark the squares. Its easy, fun, and free. I know printer ink and paper aren't free though, so we designed these cards to be as simple as possible to not waste ink.
